

GREAT TURNING with COMPASSION

Residential weekend workshop at Wiston Lodge, near Biggar

May 14 – 16, 2010
Fri 6 pm – Sun 3 pm

All experience levels welcome

How can we turn towards...

a life-sustaining society and away from industrial growth?

empowerment in overcoming the obstacles - our fears, inertia, hopelessness, anxiety - to make the changes we know need to happen?

language that actively supports us in our "being the change" we want to see?

Come join us, and let's find out together.

How? Through writing, movement, and Compassionate Communication (NVC) we'll explore ways to 'be the change' we want to see in the world.

Who? Open to anyone with some experience of the Work that Reconnects and/or NVC and/or anyone who has done the Transition Training.

Bring an open mind and a willingness to explore with openness and authenticity.

Course facilitators:

Larry Butler is a writer, tai-chi teacher & drama therapist; he is one of the founding directors of Bodhi and is a facilitator of the Work that Reconnects. 0141 946 8096

Claralynn Nunamaker is an NVC* certified trainer candidate and a director of Compassion 'n Action. She has been practicing meditation and aligning with Buddhist teachings for over 10 years. www.compassion.org.uk

About Wiston Lodge: a former Victorian Hunting Lodge built in the 1850s, located near Lanark in Scotland, an hour from both Glasgow and Edinburgh. The house and grounds offer a remote rural experience, far from any shops and other distractions.

Accommodation is in shared rooms (twins and small dorms). There are a number of rooms suitable for group work, open fires to sit round, and a large games hall. Outside, the 52-acre estate offers a rich mixture of woodlands, team-building activities, gardens and a campsite.

Course Fee (all-inclusive):
£150 suggested donation for the weekend
(£140 for Bodhi members)

* Nonviolent Communication (NVC) is based on the work of Marshall Rosenberg & the Centre for NVC at www.cnvc.org.

To secure your place, please send a non-returnable deposit of £40 with your application form.
